Glencoe Festival of the Masters

Amdur Productions Returns for the Second Annual Festival Featuring the Best of the Best

WHAT: Situated in the heart of the prestigious Village of Glencoe, the Glencoe Festival of the Masters boasts the most exceptional artwork from over 150 juried artists hailing from across the country. Artwork of all mediums including ceramics, glass, jewelry, metal, painting, photography and wood are represented at this extraordinary festival. Nestled amongst countless, upscale retail shops and galleries, the festival completes a day of shopping and browsing in the charming Village of Glencoe.

HIGH-LIGHTS: Open to the public, the Glencoe Festival of Masters offers guests the opportunity to enjoy and purchase exceptional artwork from masters in the field. Live music, great food from local and national vendors, as well as fun activities just for kids also take place at the festival. Unique artist demonstrations take place at the festival throughout the weekend.
