Explore art booth by booth at the Buffalo Grove Invitational Fine Art Festival! Currently rated in Sunshine Artist Magazine's top 50 art festivals in the country, this FREE outdoor festival hosts more than 150 juried artists, hailing from across the United States. Located on the main drive of Buffalo Grove Town Center, this exceedingly popular festival showcases art of all mediums with an impressive selection of Judaica available.

Open to the public, the Buffalo Grove Invitational Art Festival offers guests the opportunity to enjoy and purchase exceptional artwork from masters in the field. Live music, great food from local and national vendors, and fun activities just for kids also take place at the festival. Once again the festival will host a Youth Art Division, showcasing the work of young artists ages eighteen and under.

On Saturday, July 18th at 4:00 p.m., local youth will take the stage at the festival for a lively, hour long performance!

Amdur Productions invites guests with special needs, senior citizens and mothers with strollers to experience the festival on Sunday, July 19th from 10:00 a.m. - 11:00 for the "Senior Stroll."
